

A gentle story. Powerful conversations. ♥

Ways to use Pippin the Pug

A story to support connection, understanding and feelings of belonging. ♥

Pippin the Pug helps children feel seen, valued and safe to explore big questions about who they are, where they come from and where they belong. ♥

Here are some ways you can use this book with your child

SHARE SPECIAL TIME TOGETHER

Read the story together
and enjoy this time to connect.
Let your child take the lead
and go at their own pace. ♥

REASSURE AND VALIDATE

It's okay if your child has big feelings or lots of questions.
Pippin's story can help them feel safe, understood and not alone. ♥

Sometimes the hardest conversations are easier to start with a story. ♥

You don't have to have all the answers.
Just being there, listening and loving them is what matters most. ♥

ENCOURAGE CONVERSATIONS

Pippin's story opens the door
to gentle chats about feelings,
identity, family and belonging.
There are no right or wrong
answers—just listening. ♥

USE IT MORE THAN ONCE

Children often need to hear stories more than once.
Each time, they may notice
or understand something
new. ♥

CELEBRATE WHAT MAKES THEM THEM

Use the story to remind your child that being different is something to be proud of.
They are exactly who they are meant to be. ♥

BUILD A SENSE OF BELONGING

This story can help your child feel secure in who they are and remind them every day that they are loved, accepted and belong. ♥

This book can help with conversations about:

- ♥ Who I am
- ♥ Feelings and worries
- ♥ Where I come from
- ♥ Family and belonging
- ♥ Being different
- ♥ Changes and new beginnings

Every child's story is unique.
Every family
is special. ♥

Pippin the Pug is more than a story—
it's a tool for connection, understanding and helping children feel seen, safe and that they belong. ♥

Thank you for being your child's safe place. ♥
